

Visiting Story

On _____ I will be going to Redcliffe Art Gallery.

Redcliffe Art Gallery is a welcoming place where I can experience artworks by Australian artists and do art activities. The gallery is always free to visit. It is open Tuesday to Saturday from 10 AM to 4 PM. It is closed on public holidays.

Acknowledgement of Country

I will see the Acknowledgement of Country inside the entrance to Redcliffe Art Gallery. The gallery is on the land of the Kabi Kabi people. City of Moreton Bay acknowledges the Kabi Kabi as well as the Jinibara and Turrbal peoples and pays respects to Elders, past, present, and emerging.

The Foyer

The gallery has two exhibition spaces. There are doors into these spaces.

To the left of the foyer is the entrance to Gallery 1 and 2. In Gallery 1 and 2 I can find an exhibition called Spirits in the Ink.

To the right of the foyer is the entrance to Gallery 3 and 4.

The Exhibition

Spirits in the Ink is a group exhibition that explores art made by Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander artists from Far North Queensland. The artists use printmaking to show their love and connection to Country.

In the exhibition, I can look at a wide variety of prints hanging on the walls; some are small, some are large, some are black and white, and some are colorful.

I can move through this exhibition in any way I like. I will take my time to walk around the space and see the artworks in front of me.

If I need, I can have a seat on one of the benches inside the exhibition.

Visual

The lighting in this exhibition is dimly lit with artificial lights that shine onto the artworks.

Smells

There are no strong smells in this exhibition.

Sounds

There are no sounds in this exhibition.

Touch

Even though some of the artworks look interesting to touch and play with, I cannot touch any of the artworks in this exhibition. If I want to interact with the exhibition further, I can go to the Studio area to do activities.

The Gallery

These are some photos of what the inside of Gallery 1 and 2 looks like, so I can prepare before my visit.

The Studio

In this area I can participate in different activities. There are art making activities, books, and games. It can get busy here, especially during school holidays and weekends. The quietest times to visit are weekdays in the afternoon (1-3pm). I can also wear noise-cancelling headphones to help me.

Sometimes the studio is closed for workshops and the activities move to the foyer space. These activities are always available and free. Here is what the Studio looks like:

The Gift Shop

The gift shop is in the foyer, beside the front desk. The shop sells high quality, local and Australian handmade products, and books. The products are made by local artists and makers from Moreton Bay and surrounds.

The Courtyard

The courtyard is an enclosed outdoor space with tables and chairs. There are some shady areas and plants. The ground is made of pavers and concrete and sometimes it is hot.

I can enter the courtyard through an automatic glass door in the foyer beside the gift shop. I can also enter the courtyard through a sliding glass door in the studio.

Things to do

The gallery hosts lots of different kinds of events or activities. Some of the fun things you can go to at the gallery are:

Exhibition openings: These are when the gallery celebrates a new exhibition with morning or afternoon tea or evening event with guest speakers and other programs depending on what the exhibition.

Art workshops: There are different workshops organised for adults and children throughout the year.

Talks: The gallery likes to invite experts to come to the gallery and discuss different topics relevant to the exhibitions.

Group tours: The gallery caters for groups to have personal tours of the exhibitions and has daily 30-minute tours at 11AM.

I can ask gallery team members for more information about any of these events or check the gallery website.

Where can I go if I need more information

If I have any feedback or questions about access, I can contact Redcliffe Art Gallery.
