

Start

Finish

The Flood Viewer shows open sandbag stations.

NO

QFES is the Queensland Fire and Emergency Services.

YES

You should drink water in a heatwave to stay hydrated.

YES

You must put your TV in your evacuation kit.

NO

MoretonAlert sends an SMS or an email about storms, bushfires, dam releases, prescribed burns and smoke.

YES

MoretonAlert sends an SMS or an email about library opening times.

NO

Loose clothes are good in heatwaves.

YES

Listen to emergency information on local ABC radio.

YES

If the road is a little flooded, you can drive across the water.

NO

Means the road is closed.

YES

Means the sandbag station is closed.

NO

You prepare after an emergency.

NO

You recover after an emergency.

YES

The correct number for the SES is 132 500.

YES

The SES helps to find your car keys.

NO

On very windy days, toys in the garden can be dangerous.

YES

These are the fire danger ratings in Queensland.

YES

A very high Fire Rating is more dangerous than an Extreme fire rating.

NO

You clean your gutters to prepare for storms and bushfires.

YES

You wash your car to prepare for storms and bushfires.

NO

It's 38 degrees and your neighbour has a headache and feels sick. You should give them some water to drink and fan them to cool them.

YES