Change of animal registration details

The following animal registration details can be submitted online

- Change of address
- Change of contact phone numbers
- Supply evidence of concession or desexing
- Advise council that your cat or dog has moved out of the region or is deceased.

Visit www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au/animals then select the link: Updating animal or owner details

If your animal has recently been microchipped please contact council to update your animal registration details and don't forget to notify your microchip provider.

Up to date records assist council in reuniting lost pets with their owners.

Animal registration tags

All dogs and cats must wear their Moreton Bay City Council registration tag at all times. Private identification tags may also be attached to the animal's collar. Lifetime tags will be issued at time of registration. If your animal requires a replacement tag, please contact council to organise for a free replacement.

Responsible pet ownership

As a responsible pet owner, you have an obligation to ensure your pet doesn't cause a nuisance to other people or the environment.

- Take all reasonable steps to prevent your animal from making a noise or nuisance
- Suitable fencing and/or enclosures are required to prevent cats and dogs from wandering from their property.
- Keep cats and dogs in a public place on a leash, unless in a designated off-leash area.
- Be prepared by carrying plastic bags or a pooper scooper to pick up after your animal.
- The number of cats and dogs that you can have is dependent on the size of your property.

For more detailed information about these and other topics visit our website www.moretonbay.qld.gov.au/animals

Registration renewals

The annual registration period is 1 October to 30 September each year. Animal registration renewals are issued in September each year.

Microchipping of dogs and cats

Queensland legislation requires that all dogs and cats born after April 2009 must be microchipped. All dogs and cats must be microchipped at point of sale or transfer to a new owner.

Properties where dogs are not permitted

In order to minimise impacts upon koala habitat, dogs are prohibited from being kept at particular properties in Desmond Street, Narangba, Samuel Way, Narangba or Steven Court, Narangba. Contact council for further information. Persons must not keep dogs or cats in a caravan park, camping ground or relocatable home park.
